At a meeting held this evening, the Whitney ISD Board of Trustees selected a lone finalist in the search for a new superintendent as John McCullough prepares to retire.

Todd Southard of Pilot Point was selected as the top candidate. Southard is in his 27th year in education, having served as a teacher, coach, assistant principal, principal, and most recently as superintendent of Pilot Point ISD.

The board's action begins the required 21-day waiting period before Southard can officially be named superintendent.

He is pictured with his wife, Jodi, and two sons, 16-year-old Cooper and 12-year-old Avery.
